MINISTRY INFORMATION.

It is my joy to take upon God's work Industrial chaplaincy Ministry full time from the beginning of 2019. This is a very serious commitment that I have prayerfully made and considered. Thanks to my wife who is giving me lot of support to fulfill the Lord's calling. The financial support that you give me is greatly appreciated. I am able by food for the family, pay fees for my children as well assist volunteer chaplains as transport allowances. My working schedule runs as follows Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturdays for trainings at Industrial chaplaincy, and Wednesday and Fridays at Zimbabwe School of Mines chaplaincy and any other day as per the schedule for the school. Saturdays afternoon I prepare for the Sunday services as I also do pastoral work. Sundays afternoon it is my family time. Currently, I am using my little space for planning purposes and point of contact.

I am trusting the Lord for a small affordable office space for the ministry, so as to have space for counseling, prayers, trainings and administrative work, as well be accessible to my mission field. My house is 19km from the city that makes it not possible to work from my house. In my work schedule I do visit the companies, supervise established chapels and trainings. Also provide counseling and spiritual support to both management and workers. I thank God for my mentor the late Rev Mathew Mpofo who trained me and gave me all necessary skills to fulfill the ministry vision. My consistent sharing ministry work with Mehluli gives me lot of encouragement. Maurice is to attend Industrial chaplaincy training what a joy to me as we graduate him in the month of September, School of mines gives me opportunity to reach other nations as school enrolls students from Namibia, Botswana.

Training is the backbone of the ministry as we equip chaplains with necessary skills to do the ministry work at their respective places, companies and Business. As part of our plan to make follow up visit to the companies, mining community stand as our top priority as the institute has trained so many chaplains through ZSM. Gold mining about 30 km from CITY of Bulawayo has invited us to begin the chaplaincy work and trainings. Hwange Colliery Company and Mimosa. Trusting the Lord for resources to reach out to these places. This also promote ministry expansion as it has been desire for the late Rev. Chaplaincy ministry has such opportunities and potential to make a difference in the lives of people. Counseling and training manual to be used as tools to equip chaplains. I had some contact with Gideon International Country representative, Dr Ndebele, on plans to access bibles for the ZSM and companies, trusting the Lord for a breakthrough. All thanks to our brother Doug on the effort that he made to be in contact with GIDEONS INTERNATIONAL these are very strategic partners that can assist towards the fulfillment of the vision. Training has begun as per the calendar.
